UNANIMITY IN ELECTIONS.

The elections for what is by statute called "Southern Ireland" are distinguished by many remarkable features. In the first place, the House of Commons just elected will not function at all. A large proportion of the persons elected are also members of the British Parliament. In the latter they have refused to sit. They are now members of two Parliaments in neither of which are they prepared to participate.

"Southern Ireland" embraces in area exactly five-sixths of Ireland.
 It elects 128 members. Not a single candidate came forward to oppose the Sinn Fein or Republican party. Trinity College, Dublin, returned four members, who though not Republicans are not supporters of partition. There are therefore, 124 Republicans out of 128 members. Such unanimity has never before been exhibited in the political life of Ireland.

One of the Protestant boasts is that Ulster is homogeneous in race and religion. "Southern Ireland" includes three Ulster counties.
 These three counties returned twelve Republicans and Catholics, no Protestants, and no Unionists.
 There are roughly 3,000,000 Catholics in the twenty-six counties and 337,000 Protestants. With the negligible exception of the four members for Trinity College the whole representation is held by Catholics reinforced by Protestants who are in sympathy with their political views.

ST. FRANCES OF ROME.

The 7 o'clock mass at St.
 Frances of Rome church was the scene of a beautiful and impressive service, last Sunday morning when one of the largest classes of children to make their first holy communion there approached the holy table. About twenty-five small boys and girls, dressed in white, marched solemnly to the altar, where Rev. Father John Riley, administered to them the Blessed Sacrament. In the evening, with the adults, the children were confirmed by the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue.

LEAVES FOR COAST.

Next Tuesday George Ruf will go to Pasadena, Cal., to run in the national amateur championships, which will be held at the Los Angeles suburb on July 4. Sending the best local runner to the title games is only a characteristic bit of enterprise by Trinity Council, Y.
 M. I. That Ruf is now at his best and has a splendid chance to annex new laurels in the West is a certainty.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES.

Monday evening Mackin Council, Y. M. I., will elect delegates to the Grand Council convention of the Y. M. I. which will be held August 15, at Terre Haute, Ind. Members who have attended 50 per cent. of the meetings are eligible for nomination. Trinity Council will hold its election on Monday, June 27.

SACRED HEART CHURCH.

Sacred Heart church, Seventeenth and Broadway, was the scene of a most beautiful and edifying sight last Sunday morning, when twenty-one boys and twenty girls, who had been carefully trained under the tutelage of Father Walsh and the Sisters of Nazareth, approached the holy table and received their first holy communion from the hands of their beloved pastor, during the solemn high mass at 7:30 o'clock. Monday morning at this church Bishop O'Donoghue will administer the sacrament of confirmation at high mass at 9 o'clock.

MICHAEL KENNEY.

Michael Kenney, eighty-one years old, retired stone-mason, died Sunday morning at his home, 2808 Montgomery street. Mr. Kenney, a native of Ireland, had lived in Louisville fifty years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sallie Kenney; four sons, John T., P. E., James M. and Stephen W. Kenney, and three daughters, Misses Anna R., Sallie and Mary Kenney. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the Church of Our Lady, with Rev. Father Martin O'Connor as celebrant of the requiem high mass.

GENEROUS ILLINOIS.

In a detailed statement of the amount secured by the Illinois division of the American Committee for Relief in Ireland, D. F. Kelly, Chairman of the committee, reports that $336,425 has been contributed by the people of Illinois. The committee originally accepted a quota of $225,000, which amount already has been exceeded by 50 per cent.
 The amount raised in Chicago was $245,521.

MOVE POPE'S BODY.

The body of the late Pope Leo XIII. will be removed from the Vatican to his tomb in the Church of St. John Lateran during the meeting of the Association of Italian Catholic Young Men, which will be held in Rome during September.
 It is expected that twenty thousand persons will attend the ceremonies.
 During the meeting the centenaries of the deaths of Dante and St. Dominic will be celebrated.

MSGR. MANNIX AIDE.

Dr. O'Doherty, Bishop of Clonfert and the youngest member of the Irish hierarchy, has been unanimously chosen by the priests of Sydney, Australia, as Auxiliary to Archbishop Mannix. Bishop O'Doherty has been only a short time in Clon-fert and is extremely popular in the diocese. He is a brother of the Archbishop of Manila.

BLUE GRASS WINS.

Louis Scott Keller, aged fifteen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ferdinand Keller, of Lexington, has been awarded a four-year scholarship at St. Xavier's College, Cincinnati, according to a telegram received by his parents Saturday. He contested with 450 students from the archdiocese of Cincinnati for the honor.

ASSORTED NUTS

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Manager Louis Coomes, of the Knights of St. John, sprung a surprise on the league and the fans in general Sunday when his team easily defeated the strong K. of C. aggregation by a score of 7 to 2.
 This incidentally being the first game won by the Knights of St.
 John in the league. Trinity Council had easy picking with the Delissie, winning by a score of 11 to 1.
 Frankie Stier staged a comeback with the St. X. boys and held the Mackin club to three hits, the college boys winning 7 to 3, and breaking the tie for second place.
 Tomorrow they play as follows:
 St. X. vs. Delissie, Trinity vs.
 Knights of St. John and K. of C.
 vs. Mackin.

DOUBLE HEADER TOMORROW.

The Louisville Colonels and Toledo hook up again this afternoon and tomorrow close the season with a double-header. Thence comes Columbus for a four-game series, which marks the close of Louisville's home stay until July 2. The club's stirring battles with St. Paul this past week will long be remembered by the fans and in these games the club displayed one characteristic that has endeared them to baseball lovers, and that is their never-say-die spirit. Several times this season the club has come from behind and won out, and sorry to say their gameness must put to shame many fans who are ready to quit on short notice. Bruce Dudley, the Herald sporting editor, was justified Wednesday in his censure of the home folks for their lack of support just when the Colonels are playing the game of their lives. Where are all those booster clubs and civic organizations that paraded the field opening day and promised their unflinching support?
 Why not hire a band and start an attendance rally again?

ENGLISH CRUELTY.

Edward Foley and Patrick Maher, two young Irishmen from Limerick, were hanged in Mountjoy prison, Dublin, on June 7 for the killing of Sergt. Wallace of the British forces in an attack that occurred at Knocknagrou more than two years ago. Neither of the young men participated in the attack or had any knowledge of its being planned. Although they protected their innocence to the last they also bravely offered up their young lives in the cause of Irish independence. Foley and Maher were arrested several months after the attack at Knocknagrou, on May 13, 1919, in which Sergt. Wallace and one other Britisher lost their lives.
 Their arrests followed a fruitless search by the British military for the men who composed the Irish Republican attacking force. They had been confined to prison since that time and were brought before a court martial on several occasions. On each arraignment the Crown asked for postponement because there was no evidence against either Foley or Maher and they had established perfect alibis.
 However, early in June both were again brought before a court martial and the foregoing conclusion was that they would be found guilty on drummed up evidence which the British had finally secured. The verdict of guilty was returned, as expected, and the two young men were sentenced to be hanged. They were not given the usual two weeks' time to prepare, but within a few days after their conviction they were sent to the scaffold.

LOUISVILLE BOY ORDAINED.

Rev. Richard Ramstein, who finished his theological studies at the American College in Rome, was ordained at the college last Sunday, and will shortly leave for America.
 In religion he will be known as Father Matthew, being a member of the Order of Minor Conventuals.
 It is hoped that Father Matthew will sing his first solemn high mass at St. Anthony's church, Twenty-third and Market, this city, of which congregation he was a member before joining the Franciscan order and starting his studies.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL'S.

Pastor, parents and children were jubilant Sunday morning when ninety-five children received their first holy communion from the hands of Rev. Father, A. J.
 Thome, the pastor, at St. Vincent de Paul's church, Shelby and Oak.
 Father Thome celebrated the solemn high mass and preached a sermon that impressed the children and their parents. At 2:30 in the afternoon these boys and girls were enrolled in the Blessed Virgin's Sodality, the Sacred Heart League and the Confraternity of the Rosary.

MEMORIAL TO CHAPLAIN.

During the second national convention of the National Rainbow Veterans' Association, to be held in July at Cleveland, a memorial tablet will be unveiled in St. John's Cathedral to the memory of Rev.
 James Hanley, deceased chaplain of the 165th Infantry, Rainbow Division, the old Sixty-ninth New York Regiment. Father Hanley died May 25, 1920, after contracting pneumonia caused by being gassed during his sixteen months' overseas service.

SALVATION IMPOSTERS.

A warning against imposters who wear Salvation Army uniforms and make house to house and street corner collections in various parts of the United States for their own use has just been issued by Brigadier Herbert Roberts, of Cincinnati, commanding the Western Ohio and Kentucky division of that organization. Thousands of dollars have thus been collected during the last year and it has been found necessary in several cases to make arrests. Through its Community Advisory Boards the Salvation Army is trying to raise its budget this year, without resorting to tumbourine and house to house collections.

RETREATS AT TECHNY.

Lay retreats, both for men and women, will be conducted by the Fathers of the Society of the Divine Word during the summer months at St. Mary's Mission House and St. Ann's Home, Techny, Ill. Lay retreats have been part and parcel of the work of the Society of the Divine Word ever since its foundation, in 1876. Further particulars will be cheerfully given by writing to St. Mary's Mission House or St.
 Ann's Home, Techny, Ill.

LEAVES FOR ABROAD.

Rev. Francis J. Finn, S. J., the widely known Jesuit writer, began his journey to Ireland Thursday, when he boarded a train at Cincinnati for Quebec. Father Finn was the recipient of a valuable set of traveling bags, given to him by the Cincinnati Chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA.

Louisville Circle, Daughters of Isabella, will hold their semi-monthly meeting Tuesday evening at E. C. Hall. This will be a special business meeting for the purpose of electing a new Regent, and all members are asked to attend.

PARISH PICNIC.

Next Wednesday the annual parish picnic of St. Boniface congregation, for the benefit of the parochial free school, will be given at Fontaine Perry Park. Many pleasing attractions will be presented and a large gathering is looked for.
